
THAMMASAT BUSINESS LAW JOURNAL

VOL. 14: 2024

AIM AND SCOPE

The Faculty of Law, Thammasat University, publishes the Thammasat Business Law Journal with the aim to disseminate scholarly legal articles in English. The main scope of the Thammasat Business Law Journal is to publish articles relating to business law. Other scholarly legal articles are permitted to the publication process upon the preliminary review of the editorial board.

PUBLICATION PERIODS

The Thammasat Business Law Journal is an annual journal published within December each year.

PUBLICATION PROCESS

- All manuscripts must be submitted online through ThaiJO System.
- The Thammasat Business Law Journal will not consider any manuscript concurrently submitted for publication elsewhere.
- The editors will review the manuscript. We will not send papers for review that are outside the scope of the journal or do not comply with the guidelines for authors. If a manuscript complies with the guidelines and is within the scope of the Journal, it will be examined by the minimum of two distinguished scholars.
- The Thammasat Business Law Journal uses single-blind review, which means that each reviewer's identity is concealed from an author.
- The reviewer's evaluation will be requested back within five weeks. The decision to publish is based on these comments.
- The manuscript will be published after the authors correct according to such comments.

PLAGIARISM POLICY

All the manuscripts submitted for publication in Thammasat Business Law Journal are checked for plagiarism before the peer review.

THAMMASAT BUSINESS LAW JOURNAL

VOL. 14: 2024

EDITOR'S NOTE

Thammasat Business Law Journal: A New Volume Released

We are pleased to announce the release of the most recent edition of the Thammasat Business Law Journal. This collection contains five interesting articles written by talented law students of the Faculty of Law, Thammasat University. The articles address a diverse range of complicated legal topics, including the definitions of “things” and “property” under the Thai Civil and Commercial Code, arbitration processes of contract farming agreements, genetic data, commercial blind boxes under Thai gambling law, and the scope of “publication” under Thai copyright law.

We sincerely thank the authors, readers, proofreaders, advisory board members, and editorial team for their significant contributions to the journal's continued success.

Sincerely,
Associate Professor Dr. Jaruprapa Rakpong
Editor-in-Chief

CONTENTS

Legal Transplant on the Thai Civil and Commercial Code:
A Case Study of Definition of Things and Property.....1
Wiriya Kongsiriwong

Possibility of Arbitration Processes in the Contract Farming System.....16
Wannakit Jitjaroendee

Genetic Data in Insurance Underwriting: Considerations in the Thai Context.....31
Punnathorn Noramut

The Problems of Legality of Blind Boxes under the Gambling Act B.E. 2478 (1935).....42
Tunrada Wiangket

The Redefinition of “Publication” in Thai Copyright Law:
Analysis and Potential Consequences.....57
Pisawat Sukonthapan