
THAMMASAT BUSINESS LAW JOURNAL

VOL.12: 2022

EDITOR'S NOTE

Once again, another volume of Thammasat Business Law Journal has finally arrived. This year, the Journal is pleased to publish five Thammasat LL.M. (English Program) students' articles covering a wide variety of issues, including competition law, consumer protection, business organization, and private international law.

I would like to thank all authors, readers, members of the Advisory Board, and members of the Editorial Board for their works and dedication.
